The New Roots Youth Garden Thanksgiving Pie Fundraiser!

If you have already had your visit to the Bay Haven Inn I am sure you recall hearing about the New Roots Youth Garden, the volunteer youth garden project I am so passionate about! Well many of you made me promise I would let you know when we were having our annual Thanksgiving Pie fundraiser...the time is NOW! We get sweet potatoes donated from farmers here on the shore and we harvest our own pecans from local trees (and CRACK THEM!) If you live in Hampton Roads I am happy to help coordinate a delivery the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, if not but you want to support the garden you can purchase a pie for a needy family (we made 250 pies last year and 50 were donated!) or just make a donation via our FB page or you can send it to me of course! Here is the link to the NRYG Pie Fundraiser.

Fall is Apple Harvest Time

With the arrival of fall here in Cape Charles, Virginia, we notice a sudden appearance of pumpkin-flavored everything. From pumpkin spice lattes at Starbucks to Pepperidge Farm's pumpkin cheesecake cookies, it seems like fall is all about this seasonal orange fruit. While I love the taste and the festive décor of pumpkins, I'm here to make a case for fall's forgotten fruit—the apple! Fall is apple harvest time, after all, so let's give a shout-out to this delicious and versatile fruit.
